This exhibition includes artworks containing written messages with explicit language and sensitive topics, such as: sexual assault, domestic abuse, child abuse, incest, violence, and death.

The Anton Art Center is a public space for arts and culture education. Our organization values inclusivity, accessibility, mental health, and safety.

This warning is intended to give advance notice of potentially distressing material for viewers to prepare themselves to adequately engage or, if necessary, disengage for their own wellbeing.

For additional support and information, contact Turning Point’s 24-hour helpline by phone at (586) 463-6990 or visit www.turningpointmacomb.org.